COMMUNITY PROJECT FUNDING CONSIDERATIONS
(As noted by the House Appropriations Committee)

Dates for Submission for Consideration by the 18th Congressional District for All Program Areas is April 21, 2022

Appropriations Requests 2023
To allow full and fair consideration of each proposal, you are asked to submit your full application for Community Project Funding by 6:00PM (ET) April 21, 2022. The Appropriations’ Member database will open at 10:00AM on Monday, April 11th, 2022. Subcommittee Dear Colleagues, Guidance and each submission deadline are available below. Should you have questions or need assistance, contact Lillie Coney, my Deputy Chief of Staff, by calling 202-225-3816 or by emailing tx18appropriations@mail.house.gov.

INSTRUCTIONS
To meet the needs of communities across the United States, the Appropriations Committee accepts programmatic, language-based and Community Project Funding requests from Members of Congress. Members and staff have been provided with information on submitting requests through an internal Committee-maintained database, which will open for submissions on April 11, 2022.

Chair DeLauro provided an important overview of the process in a general Dear Colleague, Guidance from the Committee on submitting Community Project Funding requests is here.

As part of the important reforms associated with Community Project Funding, the Committee is requiring Members to submit a certification that neither they nor their immediate families have any financial interest in projects they request. A template for such certification is available here.
